My dear Mr Garrison

I can hardly suppose you hold me in remembrance as I do you, but I hope my name at least is not wholly forgotten by you, and that you will not think me very intrusive for writing to tell you how very glad I should be to see you if you can spare me a day or two on your way to the South.
So many of the old Anti

Hs.A.1.2 v.39, p.92A

Many friends have passed away that you will not find many you knew on your first visit — between thirty and forty years ago. but all to the old stile living would be glad to shake hands with you and congratulate you on the battle done and the victory won. and then on to such further effort as may yet be necessary to reap the full fruits of all that has been suffered for the cause. —

I am now living with my daughter's very near my son - and the three little grandsons keep alive all my interest in the rising generation If you can comply with my request, please - your own time for coming - my only engagements are the 12th & 13th - when I am expecting a sister I have not seen for many years

Believe me with all kind remembrance
yours most sincerely

Frances Armstrong
